

Isabella Corich

Bella Corich is from London, England and has been inspired by yoga since she was 10 years old. After completing her intensive Yoga Teacher Training course with the Yoga NoHo Center, she knew that this was her path to truly inspire many people to live a happier and healthier life.

She is passionate about many styles of yoga such as Ashtanga, Gentle Flow, and Vinyasa Flow. Join Bella as she will guide you through a very inspiring class, honoring the individual needs of each student.

Bella graduated from Berklee College of Music with a BA in Music Production and Engineering in 2020. In her time outside of yoga she is mostly found in a recording studio working as a music producer and audio engineer.